Questions... From Jeremiah 18 - 20

1. Read Jeremiah 18 - 20
2. INTRODUCTION: The discourse of these chapters , with the reception met by them in the nation, reveal Judah's ripeness for judgment. The case is hopeless. Destruction is imminent!
– L.A. Mott, Jr.
3. Explain the points that God is illustrating in the Potter & Clay message. (Jer. 18)
4. Explain the points that God is illustrating in the Broken Bottle message. (Jer. 19)
5. What opposing, polar opposite, or completely different emotions take turns gripping Jeremiah in 20:7-18?
6. Have you ever done the right thing then suffered for it? Being totally honest with yourself, did you ever have any of the same feelings that Jeremiah dealt with? How did you get past them?
