

1. Why would Ezekiel prophesy against the mountains, hills, ravines and valleys?

2. What is the significance of Ezekiel clapping his hands and stomping his foot?

3. How complete is the judgment proclaimed in Ezekiel 7?

4. How is Judah's worthiness of judgment reflected in the prophet's description of them as a rod that has blossomed and budded? (7:9-11; cf. Numbers 17:8-10; Hebrews 9:4)

5. In what did Jerusalem trust to deliver them? Would any of this help?
 - a. What do we trust in?

6. Would you like to be judged by the standards you use to evaluate others? Why or why not?
 - a. What principle of justice does God apply in all His judgments?