Psalm 49

Knowing who and what to trust in is very important in our lives.

Think about it...

- Who or what are you trusting in?
- How are you viewing and using the blessings that God has given to you?
- What do you fear and/or what do you worry about?

Questions... From Psalm 49

1. Read Psalm 49.
2. What are your first impressions of the message that the writer is conveying?
3. In verses 4-5 the writer describes how he will listen to the message himself. Why does he begin his message with this approach?
4. When you have tried to help another person to change something in his/her life, what approaches have you used? Which ones were effective?
5. Think of a time when you were most afraid. What did you fear? Why were you afraid?
6. Describe some ways in which people today trust in their own wealth. How can Christians avoid these traps?
7. Have you ever felt jealousy towards others who seem to have so much in this life? What do you do to change your focus back to heavenly treasure?
